at electrical signs. They would look at yours if you had one. They are an advertisement that nobody skips. Why not arrange with us to supply both the sign and the light. The cost is not large, the expense of maintaining is reasonable. Once you have an electrical sign you wouldn't part with it for $500,000.

—PEALE COLLIER &amp; CO.—The contract for the new Associated Reform School was let Thursday to Butler &amp; Shepley and will cost about $4,000. It is a modern up-to-date little building, with lecture room, auditorium and preacher's study. The congregation is small but determined to hold itself together. It is only by the untiring efforts of their pastor, Rev. G. L. Kerr that this was made possible. It succeeds the old brick temple on the Cynthiana pike, which was built in 1819, and was sold in 1904 to Samuel Berry.

—Master George Morton Jones entertained Friday night about fifty of his little friends at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Jones. She, like Miss Boulden, soon made a multitude of friends who sincerely regret her resignation. She was succeeded by Mr. B. A. Neal bookkeeper at the Farmers' Bank, who is in every respect a thorough business man.

—Our community was shocked Wednesday morning when it was learned that Mrs. Mattie Frank Baird had received a telegram announcing the sudden death of her father, Mr. Robert McClelland, of Cincinnati. Mr. McClelland was 58 years of age, dying suddenly of heart trouble. He was conversing at the time with friends and died without a struggle. He was a son of the late Joseph McClelland, of this place, a prominent stock dealer and farmer, and was himself well known on the stock exchange in former years. His wife preceded him to the grave several years ago. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Mattie Frank Baird, of Mt. Sterling, his aged mother, Mrs. Martha McClelland, of Paris, and one brother, Mr. J. C. McClelland, of Cincinnati. The remains were brought here for burial Thursday afternoon and were taken to the home of Mrs. C. W. Corington, where a short funeral service was held by Rev. T. W. Watts of the Methodist church, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Millersburg cemetery. The family have the sympathy of the entire community in this sad loss. The following is a list of the out-of-town people who attended the funeral: Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Turner, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Langston, of Paris; Mrs. John Hutsell, Mr. J. W. Powling, and daughter, of Carlisle.

—The morning of Sunday, June 28th, when I left my wife at the Sinton Hotel in Cincinnati, going out to get a shave, in my search for an open barber shop, I was sandbagged and robbed of what money I had and never regained consciousness until the next morning, when I found myself 20 miles from Cleveland in a semi-conscious condition.

—As soon as I could collect myself and find out where I was, I proceeded to walk to Cleveland, reaching there at 5:30 o'clock Monday evening. I wrote my wife as soon as I arrived and through some delay in the mails she never received my letter until Thursday. She promptly responded and as soon as aid reached me, I immediately boarded the train for home, arriving here Friday night on the Q. &amp; C.
